

IPSO VICE-PRESIDENT ELECT FOR NORTH AMERICA

Region includes the United States, Canada, Japan, South Korea, Taiwan, and China

QUALIFICATIONS

- Teamwork skills
- Organisational skills
- Communication skills
- Speaks good English — speaking Japanese, Korean or Chinese would be useful

IPSO REPRESENTATION

- Represents the candidates of the North American region and their best interests as an IPSO officer, not as a member of his/her own IPA Society
- Attends the IPSO events with the aims of increasing awareness of IPSO and recruiting IPSO Reps & members; promoting IPSO events/programs; and speaking and socializing with colleagues to enhance group work and collaboration in the ExCom and in all of IPSO.

TRAINING AS VICE-PRESIDENT ELECT:

- Required to attend the ExCom Orientation at the first ExCom Annual Meeting after the IPA/IPSO Congress, and to follow the North American VP Training Plan

PROJECTS

- Coordinates and organize incoming and outgoing Visiting Candidate Programs to and from the North American Region
- Participates in Congress Planning (COPLAN) team and the organization of the IPSO Congress
- If during the VP's Elect's term, the prospective IPA/IPSO Congress is held in North America, the Vice-President Elect will be especially involved in the organization of the IPSO scientific and social programming, coordinating with local IPSO members
- During 2nd year as VP Elect: At the annual APsaA National Meeting: Organize IPSO program (currently 1 block); organize IPSO-sponsored lunch for IPSO Reps; co-organize IPSO/APsaA Candidates Council party
- Recruit and maintain a network of IPSO North American Representatives

COMMUNICATION

- Communicate regularly with the Vice-President, ExCom, Reps, and members; share planning, information, and materials with Reps; exchange ideas and projects through email, WhatsApp, and online and in-person meetings.

REPORTS

- Provide input to reports as requested by the Vice-President

FINANCIAL

- Provide input to the regional budget as requested by the Vice-President; assist with IPSO dues as requested by the Vice-President.

ASSIST VICE-PRESIDENT AS NEEDED